Joe Birmingham, outfielder for Cleveland, is being showered with praise for a marvelous throw to the plate made him in a recent game between the Naps and St. Louis Browns.

A Cleveland paper described his feat as "the greatest throw ever made on any diamond anywhere." It is seldom that a single act of a baseball player is considered sufficiently praiseworthy to merit an editorial, but such was the value attached in Birmy's case.

With Wallace on third in the ninth inning, Hemphill sent a long fly to cenball after tall traveling. Owing to the great distance separating him from nome, no one expected that he would even attempt to head the runner at the Steadying himself, however, he let go and the ball sped like a rifle shot straight into the mitt of Nig Clarke, who did not have to step out of his hits well scattered, while Wilcox was tracks. Wallace was nailed with room hit in bunches and received poor sup-

After the game curious persons measured the distance of the throw, which was found to be 319 feet. Birmingham is admitted to be one of the most sentage in fast company.

WOW, LOOK AT THIS!

That was a fine game in the District League yesterday. The Surface Divi-sion defeated the Assessors by 25 to 0, the winners getting twenty-six hits and stealing sixteen bases. While Sinclair and Pratt were being hit hard, America was invincible, the Assessors getting only two hits off his delivery. Talbot led at the bat, with three doubles and DISTRICT LEAGUE three singles.

HARBIN DEFEATS

Dr. Lee Harbin defeated T. Pliny Moran yesterday in the finals for the Vice President's Cup by one up. Neither contestant played the game he was capable of, but the match throughout was close, the men never being more than two holes apart. Harbin won on the last green. At the turn, Moran was one up; Harbin won the tenth hole, and the twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth, and seventeenth holes were halved. Both men approach ed the green at the eighteenth hole in the same number of strokes, but Harbin holed out in one less than Moran, winning the match.

One match in the play for the Captain's Cup was played yesterday, Mr. Iman defeating Mr. Hills, two up and one to play. The remaining matches in the first round will be played tomorrow.
